P&C INCLUSION SUBCOMMITTEE

Intro session Tuesday 21 November 7-8pm

"At school, I'm just one parent, one child, one experience. As soon as parents get together through a P&C Inclusion Subcommittee, we get a bigger perspective"
-Mark Hunyor,
parent advocate

This evening session is designed to help you activate your school's P and C to promote inclusion at school, connect you with other parents to learn through shared experiences, help effectively advocate for your child and ensure they receive the support they require, and make a real difference in your community.

Don't miss the opportunity to meet parent advocates who have already started an inclusion subcommittee at their school. They will share their experiences and give you tips to get started.

Find out:

- The benefits of working through your school's P&C
- The challenges and opportunities
- What is a 'P&C inclusion sub-committee'?
- How to raise the idea of inclusion sub-committee to your P&C
- What could this committee do to promote inclusion?
- How it works at primary and secondary schools
- What do we mean when we say 'inclusion'?
