

SAVE THE DATE!

TUESDAY 14 NOVEMBER 2017

A LEADERSHIP EVENT FOR CHANGE MAKERS IN THE INCLUSIVE EDUCATION SPACE

FAMILY ADVOCACY PRESENTS

NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

Sydney, Australia

This is a leadership event for families, educators, politicians and educational leaders involved in the inclusive education space. This all day event brings a rare opportunity to showcase other countries and jurisdictions that have moved to a fully inclusive education system. Our Australian political and educational leaders will gain valuable insights from around the world.

Event highlights:

- the catalysts for change in each jurisdiction
- the implication and considerations needed for systems change in education
- what leadership needed to look like for this to occur
- a panel to draw key learning points in an Australian context

(02) 9869 0866 || family-advocacy.com

family
ADVOCACY

Confirmed Speakers

Disability Discrimination Commissioner,
Alastair McEwin

Canadian Politician and former New Brunswick Minister of Education and Post-
Secondary Education, Jody Carr

Also hear from educators, parents and family members, national and international academics, and policy makers.

More speakers announced soon!

Professionals - $195

People with disability/families/students - $55*

Sponsorship is available. Contact Family Advocacy for more information.

Booking will be essential - sign up at family-advocacy.com to secure your ticket and receive updates on this event.

CONTACT US

02 9869 0866

1800 620 588

family-advocacy.com

communications@family-advocacy.com