Dynamic, Inclusive Learning
A Journey Worth Fighting For

Australia
November 13, 2017

JODY R. CARR
Twitter -> @jodycarr_MLA
DYNAMIC, INCLUSIVE EDUCATION IS A JOURNEY NOT A DESTINATION.
My presentation

- The New Brunswick CANADA Story
- 3 steps to successful change
Where is New Brunswick Canada?
New Brunswick Families are Key....

- 1950’s - Parents Mobilized
- 1986 – Bill 85
- 2009 – Opposition Party Platform
- 2010-2014 – Policy and Practice
- 2015, new education plan
Wide variation in practice

It needs to be narrowed so that practices are "BEST", "EFFECTIVE" & "INCLUSIVE"
Catalyst for Change

• Political will.
• Teachers need help.
• Families demand better.
Working Together

politicians

Teachers

Families
Working Together

WHAT

WHY

HOW

politicians

Teachers

Families
3 Steps...

- Step 1 - Planning
- Step 2 - Implementation
- Step 3 - Sustaining
1. Planning

- Senior Advisors
- 35 school leaders
- School visits (55/300 sample)
- Report
2. Implementation

- 3 year action plan
- $7.5M + redirect support teachers
- Implementation Committee
- Senior Executive Director
3. Sustaining

- Policy 322
- Legislation
- Share success
This brochure provides the summary of 12 essential elements of an inclusive learning legislative and policy framework and in addition gives 7 key principles to assertive and collaborative implementation. This information was developed based on legal research of case law, several United Nations and Human Rights Council documents and Mr. Carr’s personal experience as a Minister of Education and Early Childhood Development in the Canadian province of New Brunswick. More information can be found at Inclusive Education Canada and ARCH Toronto Disability Law Center websites or contacting Mr. Carr at jody.carr@gnb.ca.
3. Sustaining

- Policy 322
- Legislation
- Share success
Advocacy

• Broaden the tent.

• Find common ground with those ‘against’.

• Support for classroom teachers.
CATALYST FOR INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

CONTRIBUTING TO INCLUSIVE AND QUALITY EQUITABLE EDUCATION FOR ALL

INCLUDING CHILDREN WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES
You can do it, we can do it!

Thank you.
Dynamic, Inclusive Learning
A Journey

Australia
November 13, 2017

JODY R. CARR
Twitter -> @jodycarr_MLA