

ONE OF THE KIDS ONLINE COURSE

Building Inclusion at School

"We were able to get fantastic information and tools we could use to navigate the school system to best advocate for my daughter."
Alison

Register here

About the Course

This course will provide you with substantial information to support your advocacy for your child at school. All tips and strategies provided are backed up with research evidence and a human rights approach. Inclusive education is one of the most valuable things parents can pursue in setting children up for an inclusive adult life. The course includes self-directed learning, online live sessions to connect and hear from a parent leader, and opportunities for questions and comment.

Course modules

Week 1 – 22nd May. Module 1: Why inclusion? (Self-directed)

Week 2 – 29th May. Module 2: The impact of inclusive education (Live session, 7pm-8pm)

Week 3 – 5th June. Module 3: What does an inclusive education look like? (Self-directed)

Week 4 – 12th June. Module 4: Support at school (Self-directed)

Week 5 – 19th June. Module 5: Advocacy – Making it happen (Live session, 7pm-8pm)

Would you like more information? bit.ly/OOTKOnlineCourse

Register now: https://bit.ly/OOTKOnline_May22

"This workshop was pivotal, it helped me make sure we had a clear vision around what his life would be, and that we remained vigilant in our advocacy to see those good things in life for Jacob."
Annette

Contact Us

Email address
advocacyandleadership@family-advocacy.com

Phone Number
1800 620 588